OCTOBER SESSION.

The City Inspector Indignant at His Indictment.

REPORT ON THE OFFAL CONTRACT.

BRIGGS DID NOT REPORT AS EXPECTED.

Nothing about the Indictments in the Board of Councilmen.

THE ALDERMEN.

The Aldermen sat two hours and a half yesterday, received the Offal Contract report from the Special Committee, did not receive Briggs' report on Mazzelli, but found City Inspector Downing virtuously indignant at the idea of having been indicted. We present the documents.

THE CITY INSPECTOR'S COMMUNICATION.

The following communication was received and read

CITY INSPECTOR'S DEPARTMENT,
NEW-YORK, Oct. 22, 1855.

To the Hon. the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: I observe in the papers of this morning that on Saturday last, the Grand Jury made a presentment, implicating the City Inspector's Department in some of their charges of official corruption. I have not yet been able to ascertain on what evidence such presentment was found; nor have I yet been able to have access to the presentment, to find out what is the official corruption imputed to me or the Department.

But, conscious as I am of my own integrity, in everything connected with my official conduct, and of my entire innocence of these charges, and believing that it is demanded by every consideration of public justice, that their truth or falsehood should be at once ascertained, I beg leave to request of the Board of Aldermen a prompt and full investigation of all the affairs of the City Inspector's Department. Very respectfully submitted,

THOMAS K. DOWNING, City Inspector.

The communication was received, and ordered to be entered at length on the minutes.

STREET COMMISSIONER.

The Street Commissioner transmitted a schedule of the moneys received in his Department for vault permits. Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

EIGHTH-AVENUE RAILROAD.

A petition signed by P. J. Benedict and others, prayed that the Eighth-avenue Railroad Company be required to relay their track and run all their cars to the junction of Eighth-avenue and Broadway. It was referred to a Special Committee, consisting of Aldermen W. Tucker, Cherry and Varian.

THE REYNOLDS OFFAL CONTRACT—REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The Special Committee on the Offal Contract, (Wm. R. Reynolds' much-talked-of affair,) made their report. The Committee were Aldermen Sterry, Briggs and Drake. The report was very voluminous.

The Committee decide that the interests of the City will be best consulted by making a new contract for the term of five years, as proposed by the Board of Councilmen, and that it is desirable to make a complete settlement with Mr. Reynolds.

Reynolds claims that his contract is still in force, and that the City owes him $80,000 for his monthly earnings, and should purchase his property at a valuation to be fixed by appraisers. The Mayor held that the City has no right to purchase Barren Island—(Reynolds' place of deposit.) Reynolds has been executing the contract ever since the settlement in October, 1854.

The report goes at great length into the merits of the case, presents the testimony addressed before the Committee, and ends with the following recommendations:

That the City Inspector be directed to advertise for proposals for sanitary for a contract to continue for five years from the date of the confirmation of the same by the Council for collecting and removing dead animals, offal, &c., from the City, in accordance with the specifications adopted by the Board of Councilmen Sept. 21, 1855.

That the Comptroller draw his warrant in favor of Wm. R. Reynolds for the sum of $51,351 40 for services rendered by him to the City in removing offal, &c., from the City, provided the said Reynolds will release the City from the obligation to purchase Barren Island and other property at the price of $40,745 81, and a release from the obligation to pay during the residue of the term of his contract and moneys whatever; and that said Reynolds will execute the agreement on file in the City Inspector's Office; and further, a full release of all claims against the City, that he may have for work performed by him, and growing out of his contract to remove the offal and dead animals from the City; and further, that said Reynolds will withdraw all suits against the City, and pay all expenses connected therewith at his own cost and charge.

The report was received (not adopted) and ordered to be printed in document form. It was not read.

INSPECTORS REAPPOINTED.

The Board concurred with the Council in discontinuing the employment of Inspectors for regulating and grading streets; setting curb and gutter; flagging sidewalks; filling sunken lots; leasing lots, and digging wells.

POUNDS AND KEEPERS.

The Board concurred in declaring the opening of the Bowery to Franklin-square for May 1, 1856.

HARRY HOWARD ON IMMIGRANTS.

A report on the rebuilding of Pier No. 46 North River, called out a young wind-bag, Perry Howard, on a question interest to the public. Mr. Howard seized an opportunity, before it was over, to get off a characteristic effort:

HOWARD—Mr. President: I am in favor of the report: I think Mr. Adams who will be paid: I have been to the place: I went out in a little boat, and I think the claim of the contractor is a good one and should be allowed. I am convinced, also, of the propriety of the report presented by Mr. Stevens. He gave up here and came to me on board the vessel, and I went ashore with him on one of the little vessels to the middle ground.

Mr. M. Tucker and Varian (simultaneously)—Reports—oh!

Mr. Barker rose and said he considered that the motion which he had made was denied on a motion, and he would oppose it.

The Court then proceeded to empannel a Jury. The jurors were questioned to an unusual degree. Challenges for the principal causes and to the favor when called, and the 24 peremptory challenges were generally followed by peremptory challenges. These trials for principal cause, and to the favor elicited a most hair-splitting examination of legal ingenuity, and metaphysical, or, as one of the counsel said, "psychological" analysis, in regard to the existence or non existence of opinions and impressions in reference to the guilt of the accused, and (if such impressions existed) in regard to their duration and character.

Eventually, after about four and a half hours of incessant labor, when most of the peremptory challenges had been exhausted, and some dozens of Jurors had been set aside, on the ground that they had formed opinions and derived impressions in reference to the guilt or innocence of Alderman Herrick, the following Jury was empanneled:

Orrin Fickett, Eighteenth Ward, saddler.
Wm. D. Chase, Eighteenth Ward, accountant.
John Bridwell, Fifth Ward, leather dealer.
William Brown, Eighth Ward, straw goods.
Hugh Fox, Eighteenth Ward, liquor dealer.
Alfred Chirney, Fifteenth Ward, shoe store.
Bernard J. Clark, Eighth Ward, painter.
Solomon J. Hart, Sixteenth Ward, gun dealer.
James Solomon, Fourteenth Ward, pawnbroker.
Daniel M. Greene, Third Ward, fish dealer.
Randolph Brent, Fifteenth Ward, builder.
Daniel Hughes, Seventh Ward, milkman.

The District Attorney asked if Mr. Waring was now in Court, whereupon the gentleman presented himself. The Judge, at the suggestion of the counsel for the defence, warned the jury empannelled against permitting themselves to be led into discussions affecting the merits of the case, and the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock on Tuesday.

THE INDICTED OFFICIALS.

Case of Alderman Herrick.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER—Dec. 24.

Before Hon. Judge Roosevelt.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer opened to-day at 10 A. M., and was immediately filled by a crowd of spectators, lawyers in waiting, lawyers, friends, counsel of the accused, &c. The interest elicited by these cases seems to be increasing, and the indignity with which the criminal docket has been treated by the Common Council in the matter of appointing Judges to preside at the trials, and the consequent postponement of the preliminary stages, and to some extent the trials themselves, is one of the causes assigned for the crowds.

At the Judges' Room, in the City Hall, the District Attorney, after the opening of the Court, applied for an attachment for Alfred Waring, one of the witnesses who had been subpœnaed in the case of Alderman Herrick, but had failed to appear. He (Mr. H.) would not proceed without this witness.

The Court granted the attachment.

Mr. Brady (for Alderman Herrick) inquired whether the District Attorney was ready or not to go on?

The District Attorney preferred to wait until the witness Waring should be returned.

The Judge suggested the propriety of proceeding at once with the case of Alderman Acker.

Mr. Brady was ready to go on with the trial. He inquired of the Court what had been done in the matter of empannelling a jury in the case of Alderman Herrick.

The Court informed him that His Honor had been engaged in the Court of Oyer and Terminer for the last week.

Mr. Brady suggested that it might be a question whether the Court, having commenced as a jury, would not continue the exercise of the duties of the same. He had obtained information that His Honor's testimony would be essential in reference to the whole case of Herrick alone, and no affidavit had been made by Alderman Herrick to that effect, which he would state.

The Judge—State the reasons why the Judge should not preside.

Mr. Brady—I am going to read the affidavit.

The affidavit was read accordingly. It stated that the absence of the testimony His Honor was expected to give at the present time, in the opinion of the deponent, would be material, that he should not preside at the trial.

Mr. Brady added what the counsel meant to suggest.

Mr. Brady said he supposed he could make a motion to the effect that another Judge should be called in to try the case.

The District Attorney said that although this was a question entirely discretionary and entirely in the hands of the Court, he could not, however, with pleasure see Mr. Brady, who had been employed for the defence from the commencement of the proceedings in the Court of Common Pleas, which ended in the abortive attempt to impeach Mayor Wood, and in the subsequent proceedings in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, where some counsel, who were instructed to appear for the defence, had been retained, and who had been employed from the commencement of the proceedings, and who had been
